

Take Your Reiki Practice to the Next Level in 2021

Public Reiki treatment practitioners require different knowledge and skills to those performing Reiki for personal and spiritual practice. That's why Reiki Australia offers a certificate course, Professional Development for Reiki Treatment, for Reiki practitioners who have a public treatment practice.

This course was created to address important knowledge and responsibilities for conducting a business in Australia, relevant to the provision of Reiki treatment services in clinics and healthcare and community facilities.

The knowledge and skills gained through the study of Professional Development for Reiki Treatment will also help to ensure that Reiki practitioners have a clear understanding of the National Code of Conduct for Health Care Workers, compliance with which is a legal requirement for all unregistered healthcare workers who provide a health service in Australia.

What does this course involve?

With a pre-requisite of completion of Reiki 1 and 2, the course is comprised of six home-study units, each requiring approximately 12 hours of study, including completion of exercises and assignments. The best part? You can study from anywhere, anytime! Online learning at your own pace, this online course is designed to be completed at your convenience.

The six units and their content are:

1. Codes of Ethics: Codes of Conduct

Gain a better understanding of the difference between Reiki personal practice and professional Reiki treatment practice. Be informed about the National Code of Conduct for Health Care Workers and how it relates to your professional practice, and understand the application of codes of ethics and codes of conduct, in professional Reiki treatment.

2. Effective Professional Relationships

This unit includes learning interpersonal skills that support relationships in the workplace, applying effective communication skills and approaches with clients and responding effectively to negative feedback and criticism.

3. Teamwork: Managing Conflict

This unit covers understanding the components of effective teamwork as a team member or team leader and managing conflict in a way that enhances relationships.

4. Records, Privacy and Referral

Unit 4 includes: addressing clients' rights, gaining informed consent, maintaining client confidentiality, keeping appropriate records and referring clients to other healthcare practitioners.

5. Client and Workplace Safety

Understand the health and safety requirements of your Reiki business.

6. Infection Control

Identify infection risks for yourself, clients and other healthcare workers and ensure you have adequate infection control processes in place.

*And free BONUS UNIT, Promoting Your Reiki Treatment Business, after successful completion of all six units.
